

Frisc^{PUBLIC}o Library

Activities at Home

FLASH FICTION
CHALLENGE

ELEMENT: SNOW

1,200 WORDS OR LESS

WRITING PROMPT

YOU ARE TRANSPORTED INTO YOUR FAVORITE VIDEO
GAME. WHAT HAPPENS?

Hey Teen Writers, hope these prompts spark your imagination, remember to have fun!

1. After a heavy snowfall, you notice a single set of footprints heading into the woods and decide to follow them. Write a story about what happens.
2. Describe winter as if it were a person. What are they like? How do they dress? What is their family like? Their friends? Let your imagination run wild.
3. Write a story about a "chosen family" dinner, where no one is related by blood, but they still feel like family. (blog reedsy)
4. Write an acrostic poem about something/someone you are grateful for

Dialogue Prompts

"I had a thought"/ "Oh no.,"/ "I swear it's a good one this time!" (the fake red heads writing prompt #134)

"You smile like an idiot when you're with her."