Travel Writing

Adventure is all around us, but sometimes it's up to us to find it! Grab a notebook and writing utensil and journey someplace new with family or friends. It could be a quaint restaurant, camping, or your local park. Try to see the world with fresh eyes! Jot down what you observe, feel, and reflect on. Be sure to prioritize safety, always take someone with you and never go into an unknown place by yourself.

Here's what you'll need:

- Writing Utensil
- Journal

Here are some tips for your adventure!

Tip #1: Have fun.

Enjoy the moment! There is no pressure to produce a New York Times Best Seller! Challenge yourself to be open, honest, and experimental.

Tip #2: Don't edit as you write.

Don't worry about grammatical errors. You will have plenty of time to go back and correct your writing. Focus instead on jotting down everything you wish to say.

Tip #3: Write stories.

What stories are unfolding right before your eyes? What is the story that you are currently living in this moment? Place, Theme, Context?

Tip #4: Go beyond text.

You are free to draw, sketch or use any medium that your journey inspires! It may be a source of inspiration in the future.
